Sunlight beaming down on the courtyard
Moonlight each midnight
Replace by midmorning
Reused sunlight illuminates the moon
Sundial in the courtyard showing 10 AM
The watch dial can't be seen in my dark room
Stop watch alarm clock not set to go off
Firealarms bring a rude awakening
Firetrucks arrive and spray the place down
A few residents wait in a warm pickup truck
A lucky pickpocket makes his way through Suddenly my pocketknife is out and in my hand
Oh if only I could knife fight
Or had seen fightclub
I hate this club in the courtyard
Just let me sleep
